CRAZY
WORLD

1.I Don't Feel Part Of This World Anymore

I don't feel part of this world anymore
I want to go home where it's safe and secure
I just don't fit in with the rest of the crowd
I feel all alone floating around like a cloud

Family and friends that were once so kind
Are all now strangers all the love has declined
The pretence was all part of the cunning mind
The smiling assassin taking aim shooting blind

Breaking apart the recurring dream
Dead from the head down cold and obscene
Shaking in a panic not knowing where to turn
Violent and manic showing no concern

Walking around in a constant daze
This way that way round and round the maze
Total confusion no one has a clue
All the self-delusion there's nothing I can do

Feeling sick again coughing up the blood
Heartbeat speeding up crawling through the mud
All alone no one home I cannot find my way
Help refused self-abused another meaningless day

Waking up in the night wishing I was dead
I lay there paralysed I can't get out of bed
Destitute traumatised I wish I could forget
Stop the mind suicide this never ending threat

Into darkness pain and fear I've been there many times
I'd love to hide to disappear I've paid for all my crimes
I curse the day that I was born and given to this earth
An act of cruelty left forlorn no meaning or self-worth

I don't feel part of this world anymore
I want to go home I can't take anymore

2.You Owe Society Nothing

What would you like me to thank you for
A state education that opened the door
To a life of toil of struggle and pain
Bribery and corruption a one-sided game

Hold up a mirror and don't run away
Look at yourself in the cold light of day
What do you see be honest and brave
I see a manipulated contaminated slave

Go to your work and endure all the dross
Who's the bigger jerk is it you or your boss
You give back what you earn you have no choice
Don't you ever learn you're a mouth with no voice

Everything you buy includes value added tax
Even when you die you can never relax
The state is on the prowl and it wants your soul
Listen to it growl as it takes control

A state run education a so-called human right
After many years of schooling I couldn't read or write
I was thrust into this hell-hole heading for the abyss
The violence and abuse is not something I will miss

Dumping kids in day care so mum can work two jobs
Barley surviving on welfare food banks odds and sods
Selling children into slavery to pay for all the debt
Trying your best to make ends meet desperate to forget

The stupid and the ignorant are always out in force
Defending the abhorrent showing no remorse
Acting like the good guys but secretly planning fear
A ticking time bomb red alert keep away stay clear

This cesspit called society is such an evil game
It fills you with anxiety no hope depression and shame
It builds you up knocks you down hides as you give in Human filth religion and wealth endless immoral sin

So before you give your final breath
And thanks for all the suffering
Never forget you're not human debt
You owe society nothing

3. My McKenzie Friend

Payment upfront
No blame or redress
Unqualified unlicensed
Increase your distress

I've come here to help you
To fix and to mend
Your children are safe now
I'm your McKenzie Friend

I gave him my money
Five hundred in cash
He seemed a bit funny
He was arrogant and brash

He said don't you worry
Everything will be alright
He then left in a hurry
Like a thief in the night

I never saw him again
And my children were taken
It was like living in hell
My whole world had been shaken

I was a desperate fool
That fell under his spell
My McKenzie Friend
You can go to hell

4.A Day Of Rage

A day of rage has been declared
All tooled up ready and prepared
God only knows if we'll survive
There's no escape now it's do or die

Everyone obeys without a thought
Presidents and Prime Ministers controlled and bought
We're told not to question the higher command
You must die for your country history is in your hand

We're looking for martyrs and suicide bombers
The young and the foolish and the desperate among us
We promise you heaven and eternal life
You'll be a worldwide hero we'll look after your wife

We'll keep your family in food and clothes
We'll make sure your fame and notoriety grows
You'll be all over the news and on tv
You'll be a famous star you wait and see

You'll be remembered for years to come
The man who gambled with his life and won
And when we look back we'll see your face
With your body parts blown all over the place

We'll sing a song for peace and love
We'll stand up strong rise high above
We'll follow your path just like before
A day of rage will be declared once more

5.Never Take On The World

Never take on the world for there is only one result
You will suffer much pain you'll be riddled with guilt
You'll be lost and confused you'll be cast well aside
You'll be laughed at and abused ridiculed and chastised

When a challenge comes along do not hide or give in
Take no interest in the outcome be it lose or win
In the end all that counts is you did your best
Put aside all your pride don't complain or protest

All the money and possessions and emotional ties
All the heartache and shame all the cries and lies
All the regrets and if onlys and the wasted years
They attack all you lack and increase your fears

In your head where you live when it's cold and grey
Through your eyes there is joy each and every day
Open up to the world and remind yourself
As your journey unfolds you increase your wealth

Don't pretend to be free when you bow and conform
Turn your back on the helpless go along with the norm
Bury your head in the sand until the pain goes away
Hoping things will change when it's the same every day

In the depths of despair when you feel all is lost
When you no longer care when you're counting the cost
When you're lonely as hell and no one comes near
Just remember to tell yourself why you're here

Jump on board don't be scared it's no more than a ride
Ride the waves go ahead I'll be right by your side
When you fall jump back on and we'll start once again
We're together all the way through the joy and the pain

6.This Simple Man

This simple man who walks alone
Desperately looking for light
Closed and scared lost unprepared
He knows something's not right

He continues to do the usual things
Nothing interrupts his routine
He's done the same job for twenty five years
He's a well oiled predictable machine

He sleeps each night without concern
He's consciously cold and uncaring
He takes no interest in the outside world
He doesn't do emotion or sharing

He lives alone has no family or friends
With only himself to look after
He doesn't believe in compassion or charity
Religion humour or laughter

He saves his money in a cardboard box
Terrified of what lies ahead
All he sees is a future full of pain
He can't get death out of his head

He sits on his sofa watching endless tv
He's doing the best he can
Who's to say how anyone should be
I envy this simple man

7.I'd Rather Not Know

I'd rather not know if I'm about to die
I'll ignore all the symptoms and live a lie
The blood in my urine the lump in my breast
The faints and the dizzy spells the pains in my chest

The suffering in silence I keep locked inside
The nightmares and torment the fears that I hide
I'm too scared to tell anyone I know what they'll say
You must get it checked out go right away

So I carry on as normal as normal can be
I pretend to be in control when it's controlling me
It's always there pestering it won't leave me alone
I know it's in there festering eating into my soul

As I lay here on my bed with no more tears to cry
I wish I'd gone to see the doctor cos I don't want to die

8.The Meaning Of Life

You keep on asking as if we're blessed
There are no answers for us to digest
Man has no insight to the meaning of life
It's futile and full of pain and strife

Think about anything that comes in your head
Then never forget one day you'll be dead
It's hardly surprising that no one is sane
The drugs and the booze the lies and the pain

The reason for living is not found in a book
It's like having a dream but you never wake up
It can't be explained by sight or sound
It's magnificent and godlike immense and profound

It's short and sweet it's bitter and pure
It offers you thrills but gives you no cure
It's bloody and quaint it's violent and cruel
It pretends to be saint but acts like a fool

It rises in many and renders you weak
It causes such heartache it's coy and discrete
It knows you will suffer before you give in
It's cunning and stunning and determined to win

It shines like an angel it oozes with joy
It's willing and able to kill and destroy
It moves off in silence then strikes like a snake
God help all the ones who lie in its wake

It's confusing and baron and incredibly wise
It's intrusive and Aaron it laughs and it cries
It pretends to be clean when in fact it infects
It's rude and obscene and hard to detect

It always reacts and never forgets
It retains all its strength from the ones it protects
It creates then dictates then destroys all that's good
It debates and dilates and feeds off your blood

It's rigid and torrid corrupt and insane
It thrives on emotion like anger and pain
It lurks like a virus it's patient and calm
It's willing and able with swagger and charm

It comes out of nowhere with fire and gust
It's heartless and cold it's bold and robust
Nothing on earth can stand in its way
It flatters and shatters and batters its prey

So before you ask what's the meaning of life
Just remember my friend we're dumb and so blind
We're specs on this earth of no consequence
We're meaningless parasites an insignificance

9.I'm A Slave To The System

I'm a slave to the system that's what I am
I struggle every day though I do what I can
I revel in the drama the pain and the crime
I'm a state owned fear droned waste of time

I get up in the morning I go to my job
A meaningless existence a tiresome slog
I'm ridiculed radiculed told what to do
I can't think for myself I don't know how to

I walk in the darkness I'm all on my own
Downbeat trodden meat a vacuous hole
I don't understand what the hell is going on Police state jail bait agenda 21

I gave up the dog fight a long time ago
I don't see the point in postponing the show
I realise the game now is all but lost
The elite run fascist hun holocaust

Poisonous minds and giant tv's
Chemical addictions celebrities
Main stream media out of control
Brain-dead nothing said heartless soul

The royals and the masons the damned and the pure
The bloodline pantomime satanical whore
The rise and fall of the reich elite
Terrorism Communism no free speech

I fall to my knees in a desperate rage
I'm begging you for mercy help me change
The shame and torment is tearing me apart
A selfish death wish a brand new start

The state is the master the cause and the cure
The fatal disaster the blind and the poor
The way they control is an evil game
They show no remorse no mercy no shame

Political asylum for those who grieve
Sexual blackmail born to deceive
The money and the titles the lies they debate
The innocent children the hell they create

The rich and the greedy and the homeless plight
The game is survival starve or fight
Work all your life and then drop down dead
Enjoy the ride suicide bullet to the head

The secret courts and the desperate plea
Get down on your bended knees beg for mercy
The innocent victims who have no voice
Hell on earth right from birth no real choice

The fatal blow and the final cry
The piercing light and the magical high
The endless joy and the peaceful soul
I'm on my way I'm going back home

10. Bow To The Royals

Bow to your masters sell your soul
You're food for the wicked who love to control
You fall to your knees like a weak scared child
Pathological slave debunked and beguiled

You believe in the state and the criminal crown
You wriggle like bait then obey and lie down
You scream like a baby and wave your flags
You give them your money and dress in your rags

The pomp and the glory the incredible lies
The vacuous story the unscrupulous ties
The con and the gory the shame and the cries
The cruel and the phony and the evil disguise

A German reminder Berlin the Third Reich
A benevolent myth a deceitful contrite
A wreck from the past full of darkness and spite
Abused and confused and detained from the light

Your royal your highness my master I crave
Your guidance and approval I yearn to be saved
I worship your greatness your bloodline so pure
I kneel at your feet I beg for your cure

They say you are godlike with mystical charm
Blessed by the angels sworn and re-born
Will you ever engage a mere mortal like me
I'm nothing I'm worthless not fit to be free

Your palaces burst with incredible art
You're skilled and well-versed so clever and smart
You travel around in your golden coach
Impressing your slaves immune from reproach

The land and wealth and the power you hold
You took from the workers you bullied and controlled
Your army of loyal soldiers in red and black
Will no longer be willing to defend your back

The revolution is near there is no doubt
The people will revolt you'd better watch out
You've been here too long like a clinging virus
You can fool us no more your royal highness

11.The Magnificent Magpie

The magnificent magpie confident and strong
Watching from the highest point casually in song
Eyes like telescopes in and out for food
At times superstitious sometimes misconstrued

On the go spread-eagled gliding at ease
Following on instinct at one with the breeze
Prominent and purposeful as cool as you like
Sometimes cruel and violent but always a delight

Some say you are intelligent but always bring bad luck
Associated with witchcraft a thief and a crook
A sly and menace character a pirate of the skies
All I see is reflection in me beauty through your eyes

The magnificent magpie cocky and sure
Never one to mess with alert and secure
Standing tall and proud peacock-like and calm
Fly away magnificent magpie go and spread your charm

12.How Beautiful My Snowflake

Hundreds of Thousands of snowflakes descend
They fall without menace never questioning the end
So pure and so virgin never touched or controlled
How beautiful my snowflake so warm yet so cold

I stand there in silence so peaceful and calm
They land on my body full of character and charm
Everyone is unique so precious and dear
In a world that's so bleak it's a blessing to be here

I hold out my hand I'm as light as the air
A snowflake appears not a thought or a care
For just a few seconds I feel the divine
How beautiful my snowflake I'll see you next time

13. What Do You Think Happened

What do you think happened to Mr Blyth
Who lost control after his mother died
What do you think happened to Mrs Penn
Who had an affair and was never seen again

What do you think happened to Jimmy Cope
Who lived on credit never worked and smoked dope
What do you think happened to dear old Kitty
Who was bullied at school for being too pretty

What do you think happened to Jack The Lad
Who broke into cars and stole from his dad
What do you think happened to Sally Stone
Who was terminally ill and left all alone

What do you think happened to Del Boy Green
Who crashed into a bus stop and fled the scene
What do you think happened to Dr Robb
Who drank too much and lost his job

What do you think happened to Sergeant Hubbad
Who had a stroke and never recovered
What do you think happened to Reverend Grimes
Who stole from the church and fell on hard times

What do you think happened to Kelly Long
Who had a facelift that went horribly wrong
What do you think happened to Steven Grey
Who came out at fourteen and revealed he was gay

What do you think happened to Billy White
Who was traumatised after losing his sight
What do you think happened to Grandma Mills
Who lived a life of booze and pills

What do you think happened to Chinese Jim
Who was sick of the torment and finally gave in Last but not least there was Michael Brown
Who was made bankrupt and had a nervous breakdown

All these people who laughed and cried
Who suffered much pain and got off the ride
They missed the boat how hard they tried
They all committed suicide

14.The Golden Flower

Take a taste from the golden flower
Succulent nectar superpower
Safe and warm back to the womb
Magical content beautiful bloom

Rest in peace with no more pain
Nothing to defend feel no shame
Death is constant floating around
Relying on nothing no scent or sound

Struggle through life it's your choice
No one is a victim use your voice
Don't back down retreat or delay
Choose your path start right away

Do not seek any admiration
Inside yourself find inspiration
The flower is there whenever you need
Don't be discouraged you will succeed

It's not your path to walk on water
Become a saint find the devil's daughter
Know your part and then begin
The sooner you start the sooner you win

Don't imagine what life will bring
One step at a time just do your thing
Never be scared when the going gets tough
Believe your best will be good enough

Forget the past that's dead and gone
It serves no purpose you must move on
And when the time comes you'll shine so bright
Like the golden flower an incredible sight

When you face your death like we all must do
And you don't understand what you're going through
Pick up the flower and feel peace once more
Take it with you through the golden door

15. My Uncle James

I came across a photo
At my mother's house today
My blood turned icy cold
As I remembered that fatal day

It was a photo of my family
At a birthday celebration
But that all changed when my uncle died
Then came the revelation

He'd been abusing my little sister
When she was only six
She'd kept it hidden for all these years
It made us all feel sick

It all came out when she broke down
And finally released the spell
My Uncle James with his evil games
Is now hopefully rotting in hell

16. Still No Wiser

Just when you think you finally know
Something comes along and spoils the show
The never ending cycle you're up then down
One minute you're a hero the next a clown

You spend all your time trying to work it out
On Monday you're enlightened on Tuesday in doubt
Then Wednesday reveals even more confusion
Thursday and Friday turns to disillusion

You take a break from the Saturday blues
By Sunday lunchtime you're back on the booze
Before you know it you're back to square one
Still no wiser wondering where the week has gone

17.Cast Your Net

Convince the people they are helpless
Then you hold the reins
Choose your path of fear and resentment
Inflict the aches and pains

Condemn the ones with all the wealth
The driven and the clever
Are they the reason for your pain
And not your lack of endeavour

Tax and debt slaves march in line
Towards the burning fire
The red flag fades into the night
Then seeps into the mire

Denigrate the poor and homeless
Never feel guilt or shame
Feed yourself until you burst
Then play the victim game

Be controlled if you wish
But don't expect the change
Hoping someone else will rise
Is not a fair exchange

Take responsibility for yourself
That's what we all must do
Be the change you want to see
And let the light shine through

Faith is the key to unlock your dreams
A simple life of learning
Resist the toil and endless stress
The jealousy and the yearning

Blessings come in so many ways
Trust and you shall receive
Pay no attention to futile days
Gossip or make believe

Cast your net into the sea
And wish for no return
Do not deal in fantasy
Reward is not your concern

Go with the flow for if you fight
You'll suffer like the rest
Walk on your own towards the light
Don't challenge or protest

Cast your net into the sea
Then turn and walk away
Don't look back or hesitate
Embrace the brand new day

18. Another Depressing Visiting Day

I'm off to the hospital to see my dad
He's on B ward second floor
He has dementia he thinks he's at home
He talks endlessly about the war

All I can do is be there for him
And offer my love and affection
I get very upset when he starts to cry
I can't give him much help or protection

I see in his eyes he's lost and alone
Unable to regain his sanity
He sits there confused scratched and bruised
Unaware of the unravelling calamity

He's fading away there's nothing more to say
Disappearing in the blink of an eye
Clinging on to hope unable to cope
A prisoner while life flashes by

Even humour disappears that once controlled the fears
All that's left is an empty fragile shell
As nature takes control to receive another soul
At least he'll be released from this hell

I look around the ward and see the same discord
Families going through the same routine
Nothing much to say another depressing visiting day
We all exchange pleasantries and vacate the scene

19. Angry Dad

Angry dad is extremely mad
He can no longer see his children
The secret courts have made sure of that
He's treated like a common criminal

He loves his kids with all his heart
But that seems to count for nothing
He's seen as a threat with his political views
Both he and his children are suffering

Simon six Emily three
Cry every night at home
They don't understand why daddy has gone
And left them all alone

Mummy has told them daddy's been naughty
And he won't be coming back
Using kids like pawns in a chess game
A ruthless and heartless attack

There's so much anger hurt and pain
In this crazy world today
The way we treat each other like dirt
We'll do anything to get our own way

Our children grow up alone and lost
Abused confused distressed
Angry dad inconsolable it's so sad
Left on the scrap heap like all the rest

20. Problem Reaction Solution

Step by step they dismantle freedom
Rehearsing the terror after dark
When everyone believes the story told
And questions nothing it's a walk in the park

Problem Reaction Solution
As easy as one two three
Watch the drama unfold
See your lives controlled
On your fifty inch colour tv

It's like turkeys voting for Christmas
That's how docile man has become
Football and beer a youtube career
Celebrity the fake and the dumb

The state will own your children
Keep your mouth shut and do as you're told
Send them to school get them used to the rule
Systematically brainwashed and sold

Living in a cashless society
Your credit turned off anytime
Like a prisoner in hell with nothing to sell
Communities in total decline

At least you'll still have your shopping
All the make-up clothes and shoes
No fight or resistance a pathetic existence
With no real opinions or views

I'm sure one day when you look back
You'll regret the sale of your soul
CCTV ID cards
Police State and global control

When you finally wake up to reality
And come out from behind your door
It will be too late to change the fascist state
You will suffer like the many gone before

21. Little Old Me

Little old me who has no power
No freedom no wealth no plans or desire
Little old me so full of pretence
A lack of wisdom a weak defence

Little old me bullied at school
Tormented fragmented a fragile fool
Little old me lost and alone
No one to turn to no way home

Little old me always left out
No real friends full of self-doubt
Little old me mental torture
Ravaged and savaged a lamb to the slaughter

Little old me full of anger and fear
Negative self-destructive no one comes near Little old me battered and bruised
No self-respect destroyed and abused

Little old me terrified of life
Believing the news in constant strife
Little old me owned by the state
Always conforms no need to debate

Little old me bigot and fraud
Always playing the victim card
Little old me confused and weak
Destitute an outcast cold and bleak

Little old me coward and snake
Secretly laughing cunning and fake
Little old me I can't think for myself
Stumped by philosophy left on the shelf

Little old me Little old me
Always after sympathy

22. Non Of Reality Is

Non of reality is
It's all a misconception
Meanings don't exist
Just a cruel and clever deception

The matrix lies within
Is that not clear to see
Don't impose limitations on yourself
Your experience is the key

The journey of impermanence
Of suffering and confusion
Is no more than a fleeting glance
Of irrelevance and delusion

A futile game we all must play
Before it's all made clear
The realisation then comes through
To quickly disappear

The truth is never what you think
A cunning contradiction
A hybrid construct on the brink
Of madness and extinction

The childhood dream that fades away
Was never really there
Hold your breath until you faint
And cease to even care

If you take away all you have
You're left with life itself
An amazing insight a magical dream
A peaceful inner wealth

You'll soon discover the joy of being
Your natural karmic state
An inspiration is in place
It's there for your own sake

Don't be afraid or lose your way
There's nothing it can't do
It's there to heal so you can feel
True life inside of you

Don't get caught up in words and mind
Embrace the new dawn
As energy flows intelligence grows
And a new earth is born

Non of reality is
It's all man-made inventions
Don't be fooled tricked or ruled
Follow your own intentions

23.Rats In The Garden

Rats in the garden rummaging around
Watching from the window don't make a sound
Ravaging the dustbins in amongst the grass
Quick as lightening horrible and crass

Always in numbers defence from the foe
Rotting shit and fungus swallow as you go
Breeding amongst us no one needs to know
Leave the food and run fast before the fatal blow

Black Rats Brown Rats always on the run
Hopping around your garden having lots of fun
King Rats Monster Rats killing innocent frogs
Hunting in large packs avoiding cats and dogs

What an awesome creature see those jet black eyes
Fury warm and screecher they take you by surprise
Chewing through your cables with their claw-like teeth
Up the chairs and tables causing endless grief

Grab him by the tail you must avoid the bite
Confuse him and derail blind him with the light
Dull the noise of screaming don't embrace the thrill
Stop the flow of bleeding there is no need to kill

Rats in the garden furrowing down
Well away from danger always safe and sound

24. Sitting On A Chair

Sitting on a chair in the middle of the road
No one has a clue how I got here
I don't have a worry or a care in the world
All the noise around me seems to disappear

It's all quite surreal like nothing exists
I don't feel emotion anymore
I look up at the sky as the birds fly by
I feel peaceful safe and secure

It's a quaint little chair I think one of a pair
A high carved back with two wooden arms
It's finished in red silk very sturdy and well built
Comfortable full of character and charm

There's panic all around I don't make a sound
People are angry and enraged
I know they can't get passed they abuse me so I laugh
I can't respond right now I'm disengaged

The police soon arrive at which point I decide
To stretch my legs and attempt to run away
I'm detained and then arrested
My innocence vehemently protested
But I'm taken down to the station
And charged with affray

25. Release What You Hide

All the oppression the fanatical obsession
    Keeping depression at bay
All the dark moods the constant broods
    The fools that won't go away

Black clouds looming the wants and the grooming
    The sexual fantasies subside
You try to pull through but all you can do
    Is scream out and hang on to the ride

You wallow in sadness the mundane the madness
    The hollow the vile and the sick
The homeless and hunger the poor torn asunder
    The magnificent the cruel and the thick

You're too scared to sleep the scars run too deep
    It's a struggle to get out of your bed
It's a game you can't win so you cheat or give in
    There is turmoil invading your head

You vomit each day you curse and pray
    You desperately try to survive
You turn to your faith it's all you have left
    Only God can keep you alive

You can dream all you like it will do you no good
    You can never control what happens
You can fight until the end and fiercely defend
    But you'll experience the same old patterns

All the times you've cheated the way you mistreated
Your parents your friends and your wife
All the drugs and the booze all the people you abused
The deception the false promises and lies

When you finally decide to release what you hide
Like the torment anger and shame
The unbearable stress the emotional mess
The regrets that drive you insane

When you finally decide to release what you hide
There'll be no more pain only peace inside

26. You Docile Little Slave

Billions of entities mulling all around
Grunting like gorillas trying to make a sound
Lacking in nobility selfish to a tee
Heartless unforgettable get a load of me

Ignorant unconscious follow the latest craze
Violent and malicious can't escape the maze
Greedy and ridiculous always on the make
Needy and contemptuous gutless drab and fake

No interest in the world there's only time for I
Cunning and absurd quit before you die
Frothing at the mouth smelling like a pig
Doting to the hierarchy dance your little jig

Thinking you're important when really no one cares
Miniscule and dormant meaningless affairs
Full of self-delusion grandeur is the name
Creating more confusion before you pass the blame

Rant and rave in sequence you sound just like the rest
Internal hate and grievance a reptile to detest
Opulence and credence while playing the victim card
Off your head on heroin monkey-like retard

You reek of self-delusion compassionless and cold
You give away your freedom and do what you are told
Confusing your existence with importance and desire
You offer no resistance and end up in the mire

Feed off ancient teachings mass murder and fear
Brutal satanical beatings make your message sincere
Mind manipulation as easy as one two three
Crucify every nation Democide is the key

Smell the blood and torture take a front row seat
Prepare yourself for slaughter bow to your elite
Sickness lies in waiting eager to destroy
Evil cunning seductive it plays you like a toy

Choose the colour purple cook the national dish
Sit cross-legged in the circle make your menial wish
Contemplate disaster hold on to your dream
The calling of your master will be your final scene

Let go of your sanity for it will not survive
Freedom is a fallacy a lifelong compromise
Read your final chapter as you walk towards your grave
Another life of nothingness you docile little slave

27.You Can

You can hoard all you like be attached to your things
You can fight for your ego and the nonsense it brings
You can think you're immune from the devil and death
Write your own obituary fight your final breath

You can swing from the trees and pretend you are sane
You can crawl on your knees and embrace all the pain
You can suffer like the many and relive your past
Give away your final penny hope that peace will last

You can wallow in sorrow and debate who knows best
You can plan for tomorrow you can hate and detest
You can wriggle like a worm on the end of a hook
Reinvent yourself become a leech and a crook

You can fall on your sword be adored like a queen
You can rise like a lord get redressed become clean
You can fill your house with excitement and desire
Feel the sorrow of another as you wallow in the mire

You can strut around the streets in the latest fashion
You can challenge and compete with no compassion
You can sit in the park in the dark all alone
Let your world fall apart never go back home

You can tell yourself you have God on your side
You can hide all your wealth while others can't survive
You can pretend all is good in the world today
Bury your head in the sand hope the pain will go away

You can scream and shout until you're blue in the face
You can cry in self-pity and get out of the race
You can shine like a beacon jump as high as the sky
Hold on tight as you weaken while your life flashes by

You can do all these things and admire all you've gained
But in the end you'll lose everything you have attained

28. I'm Off To Dignitas Next Week

I'm off to Dignitas next week
I'm going to put myself to sleep

It made me angry and sent me funny

I can't begin to explain the pain
The depth of hell the guilt and shame
The torn apart the quest for blame
The broken heart the evil game

The sleepless nights and all the thinking
The panic attacks the endless drinking
The don't give a damn unwashed and stinking
The big I am that's finally sinking

The constant hatred that lies within
The cursed and fated in search of sin
The lost and sedated who just give in
The tossed and berated who never win

The common man who stands no chance
The beautiful world a fleeting glance
The loneliness the solitary dance
The constant torment the crave romance

The victim mentality the split personality
The suffering and insanity the plight of humanity
The cause and effect the failure to protect
The lives we infect dictate and dissect

The ever illusive answer the ravaging devouring cancer
The cruel heartless chancer the take control romancer
The final curtain appears and now it's all made clear
No more worry or fear as the end of life draws near

Me like a billion others friends sisters and brothers
Uncles fathers and mothers husbands wives and lovers
We all have one thing in common
Our bodies will soon be rotten
In God we love and trust as our journey turns to dust

I'm closing now for the final time
Who knows what lies ahead
I'd love to come back to tell you all
What it's really like to be dead

Goodbye my wife goodbye my life
Goodbye to all my friends
Love and peace to you all
I hope we meet again
